ASHES OF DAWN

A THOUSAND DYING STARS

Album: BEFORE THE LIGHT FADES

[Intro — Soft piano, 8 seconds]

I used to count the stars above
And dream of worlds beyond our own
I never knew that I could lose
The one who made the night feel home...

[Verse 1 — Melancholic female vocals]

They drew my future in the stars
A crown, a throne, a promised life
Then came a soul who shared my dreams
And made the darkness feel alive

We spoke beneath the endless sky
Two hearts concealed from mortal eyes
Until the day the silence broke
And fate came tearing through our lives...

[Pre-Chorus — Strings building]

We had no right to dream this way
But love was never ours to choose...

[Chorus — Powerful vocals, heavy guitars]

I still see you in the stars!

In every light that burns so far!

I called your name against the night

But brought back darkness in your eyes

I'll carry what I can't undo

A thousand dying stars... for you!

[Verse 2 — Darker, heavier]

The kingdom burned, the heavens cried

Ten thousand souls were lost that night

I spoke your name, I begged the skies

But death returned you in disguise

I thought that love could break the grave

Now I must live with what I gave...

[Chorus — Full band, emotional intensity]

I still see you in the stars!

In every light that burns so far!

I called your name against the night

But brought back darkness in your eyes

I'll carry what I can't undo

A thousand dying stars... for you!

[Bridge — Whispered vocals, then explosive]

If I could turn the years around

I'd leave your name beneath the ground

I cannot change what I have done

But I can save the lives to come!

I WILL NOT CALL YOU BACK AGAIN!

I WILL NOT FEED THE DARKNESS!

I'LL BE THE SHIELD THAT STANDS BETWEEN

THE LIVING AND THE ENDLESS NIGHT!

[Final Chorus — Epic orchestral rock climax]

I still see you in the stars!

Though nothing's left of who we are!

I lost you once, I lost you twice

And paid the price with countless lives

But if the heavens fade away

I'll be the light that dares to stay!

For every soul I couldn't save

I'll fight until my dying day!

[Outro — Piano and fragile vocals, 8 seconds]

The stars are still above me...

I see you...

But I won't call your name...

[End]
